

Personal Career

- 2011 Tokyo University, BA.
- 2013 Kobe University Law School, JD.
- 2015 Joined Toda & Co.
- Since then, handling various Marine related cases including Marine Incidents cases, Ship Arrest cases, Charter Party Disputes, Marine Lawsuits, etc.
- 2019 Completion of UK Southampton University Maritime Short Course

Publications

- "Law Reform in Standard Terms and Conditions relating to Maritime Industry" (Panelist in Discussion Session held by The Maritime Law Association of Japan in 2019)
- "How to handle the cases including the damages of the properties owned by the public authorities done by vessels and the wreck removal" (Seminar, 2022, The General Insurance Association of Japan)
- In addition to the above, I have presented many seminars to various associations, organizations and companies.

Message

I have experience dealing with many cases involving ships and international trades, so I can assist you in a wide range of areas. In particular, with regard to the following types of disputes, I have accumulated a deep understanding of the fundamental risks inherent in casualties and specific knowledge regarding maritime areas;

- Marine Casualties,
- Marine Criminal Defense,
- Air Cargo Accidents,
- Preservation and Enforcement of Maritime Claims, including Ship Arrest
- Limitation of Shipowners' Liabilities Procedures,
- Maritime Trade,
- Maritime/Commercial Arbitration,
- Ship Sale and Purchase,
- Labour Issues for Seafarers,
- Fishery Claims,
- Renewable Energy,
- Disputes or Negotiations between Authorities and Private companies, and
- Product Liability Issues, etc.